

GAELE RBEIZ

Gaelle has been passionate about social protocol and etiquette since an early age, and therefore decided to pursue her undergraduate studies in hospitality management at USEK. She also holds a master's degree in strategic economics of sports and tourism from Grenoble University in France. Gaelle worked as an event coordinator for Hospitality Services before opening her own event service business. She is highly experienced in organizing events and provides advice concerning social protocol and etiquette.