

JOUMANA FARAH

Joumana is senior officer at the Registrar office at USEK. She holds a BA in English Language and Literature, a Teaching Diploma from the Lebanese University, and an MA in English Language and Literature from USEK. Joumana runs regular workshops and language training sessions with a focus on conversation as a way for students to improve fluency and gain confidence in their second or third language. In her spare time, Joumana likes to read books and write research articles.