

Maestro Fabio Lazzara

- Member of the National Association DIVA (Integrated Didactics Artistic Voice)
- After his studies at the Piano Conservatory, he specialized in the physiology and didactics of modern and lyric singing with famous artists and specialists of artistic voice.
- In 2010, he obtained the title of "Artistic Vocologist" from the University of Bologna.
- Vocal coach, artistic vocologist, pianist and maestro of modern and lyrical singing. He is a partner and founder of Ceimars "Interdisciplinary Center of Medicine of the Arts" in Agrigento and Rome.
- In 2008, on the occasion of the Pauline Year organized by Pope benedict XVI, he was the arranger, choir director and vocal coach of the unpublished Musical "SULLA VIA DAMASCO" by Michele Paulicelli.
- Vocal coach, vocal arranger and choral director of the unpublished work "Macbeth - Musical Tragedy", based on the famous opera Shakspeariana.
- Since 2018, he is the National Manager of the technical-didactic area of the Italian Performer Federation (FIPASS).
- Vocal Coach of established professionals in Italian and foreign discography, of well-known actors and singers of the Italian cinema and TV scene.
- Teaches advanced courses in artistic voice for voice teachers and speech therapists .
- Guest speaker and lecturer on artistic voice in international conferences in Italy and abroad.