

MARIA KAMOUH

Maria is an attorney at law, and a law instructor at the Faculty of Law at the Holy Spirit University of Kaslik and Notre Dame University. She is also currently a visiting Professor at “Université de Toulon”. She completed her master’s degree and her doctoral degree in Public Law (comparative study in General Constitutional Law) at USEK and Paris I University. Her research interests lie in the area of international public law, administrative law and constitutional Law. She has also published several articles related to the mentioned fields in Lebanese and French law journals. Besides being a jurist, Maria is also a passionate painter!