

SAMAR TABET

Samar Tabet has over 17 years of experience in the field of graphic design, animation, media production and teaching. Creative Art Director at Future TV since 2007, Samar is in charge of the production of graphic concepts, style guides and visual direction for news and political shows.

In parallel, since 2007 until present day, Samar has been enjoying the role of instructor at the Holy Spirit University, (USEK), the same university from which she graduated, teaching diverse graphic design courses and animation programs in typography, editing, After Effects, Flash, Indesign, Illustrator, and Photoshop to name a few.

Samar was awarded the Golden Award at the 2005 Tunisian Festival for her work for the TV show “Good Morning”.