

NASSIF HITTI

Professor Nassif Hitti is the Director of the Higher Institute of Political and Administrative Sciences at the School of Law and Political Sciences at USEK. He holds a PhD in International Relations from the University of Southern California. Posts he has held include the League of Arab States Ambassador to France, UNESCO, Italy, and The Holy See, as well as the Diplomatic Advisor to the Secretary General of the Arab League.

Professor Hitti has extensive experience as a university professor and has published several books, articles and essays on international relations, foreign policies, and issues related to the Middle East. He is also the author of a bi-monthly article for Lebanese and Egyptian newspapers, and a frequent visiting lecturer at universities, research centers, and conferences.